

User Makes Authentication
Call

User receives a token and is authorised to interact with the api

User Makes call to api route to update their account balance

Api gets record from database and updates with new information

Update is saved to the sql server database